Lunch for Nānākuli Elementary School Families

It's a challenge for families to deal with Hawai'i's shaken economy and also care for children who are home from school as a result of the pandemic.

To provide a momentary bright spot, families of students at Nānākuli Elementary School were invited to drive through the PVT parking lot on May 16 to receive up to six plate lunches catered by Ho-Ho Chinese Cuisine in Kapolei. PVT provided 400 lunches for the event. NES teaching and administrative staff joined PVT in handing out the meals.

800 Hot Meals for Wai'anae Coast Residents

Eight hundred hot meals were delivered to residents of Mā'ili Land Transitional Housing in Wai'anae, Hale Makana o Nānākuli low-income housing in Nānākuli, and to residents of a homeless encampment near Lualualei Road also in Nānākuli.

Meals were paid for by PVT and delivered by members of the Mā'ili-Nānākuli Neighborhood Board and PVT employees. A&G Bar and Grill in Nānākuli prepared the meals. Deliveries, made on two Saturdays, were organized by the Wai'anae Coast Community Foundation (WCCF), which included two facemasks with every meal and two rolls of toilet paper from PVT.

Support for WCCHC

PVT was proud to join with dozens of donors who support the Wai'anae Coast Comprehensive Health Center's COVID-19 services, outreach programs, and food distribution/keiki feeding programs.

WCCHC provides a host of essential services to our community. If you would like to donate, please visit www.wcchc.com/giving.
