Great Eggspectations

PVT continues to support community efforts to provide food for those who need it.

On May 23, 240 trays of fresh eggs—each tray containing 20 eggs—were delivered to Nanaikapono Church in Nānākuli where they were included with other food items and given out to families as part of the church’s drive-through distribution. PVT purchased the eggs from D. Otani Produce, Inc., which also delivered the eggs.

Earlier in May, PVT provided 800 hot meals to residents of Mā‘ili Land Transitional Housing in Wai‘anae, Hale Makana o Nānākuli low-income housing in Nānākuli, and to residents of a homeless encampment near Lualualei Road.

Over Easy—PVT turned out in force to distribute 240 trays of eggs on May 23 at Nanaikapono Church in Nānākuli.

Congratulations to NHIS Graduating Seniors

With traditional graduation ceremonies cancelled due to Covid-19, parents and teachers from Nānākuli High School donned their thinking caps to come up with ways to recognize and celebrate the school’s 126 graduating seniors.

So it was that every senior received a swag bag containing a variety of gifts. Included in the swag was a gift card for use at any McDonald’s restaurant, courtesy of PVT.

We’re Lovin’ It—Chris Ann Kaalulaau (left), NHIS parent-community network coordinator, dropped by PVT to pick up a bag of 126 McDonald’s gift cards to be included as swag for NHIS graduating seniors. Welcoming her were PVT’s Ben Yamamoto and Lahela Romena.
